

Correction Exercices

Ex 1 p 46

- a- - Shauna has got a History textbook
- Lucy and Tom have got a keyring and an English notebook.
- Paul has got a tie.

- b- - I have got a keyring.
- I have got a History textbook.
- I haven't got a tie.
- I haven't got an English notebook.

Possibilité de faire des phrases différentes (reliées avec and ou en opposition avec but)

- c- Have you got a keyring in your schoolbag ?
- Have you got a History textbook ?
- Have you got a tie ?
- Have you got an English notebook ?

Ex 2 p 46

- a- I have got jeans but I haven't got a tailcoat.
b- « Have you got orange trainers ? » « Yes, I have. »
c- My big brother has got a white bow tie.
d- « Has your cousin got a waistcoat ? » « No, he hasn't. »

Ex 22 p128

- a- Yes, I have got a green schoolbag.
b- Yes, my father has got a sports car.
c- No, I haven't got a bike.
d- Yes, Lily has got two big sisters.
e- No she hasn't got a cat.
f- Yes, my cousins have got a big house.
g- No, they haven't got a swimming-pool.

Ex 23 p128

- a- « Have you got a locker at school ? » « No, I haven't. »
b- « Has she got drama on Tuesday ? » « No, she hasn't . » c- « Have they got French on Monday ? » « Yes, they have. »
d- « Has Mathew got history this morning ? » « Yes, he has. »

Ex 24 p128

- a- Have you got art today ?
b- Jessica hasn't got her lunchbox today.
c- The pupils have got their trainers.
d- Mrs Smith, have we got a test today ? (ou Mrs Smith à la fin de la phrase)
e- I've got a blue pullover.

Ex 25 p128

- a- I have got a schoolbag.
b- I haven't got a guitar.
c- I haven't got a horse.
d- I have got a bike.

Ex 26 p128

In his schoolbag, Chris has got a calculator and an apple but he hasn't got his maths notebook nor (= ni)his pencil.